GOOD WEATHER ENCOURAGES POSSIBLE RECORD BALLOTING

EARLY VOTING IN KEYSTONE STATE HEAVY

Threat of Rain Later in Day Spurs Citizens To Polls Throughout Pennsylvania

LEADERS CONFIDENT

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(P)—Voting was heavy throughout Pennsylvania today in the presidential election.

A threat of rain late in the day spurred voters to cast their ballots early. Across the state skies generally were cloudy with chill air holding promise of showers to come.

In Philadelphia, the state's largest city, voting was brisk. Pittsburgh, too, reported heavy early voting with observers predicting a big turnout.

Sunny weather helped crowd polling places in Luzerne county. Balloting was reported particularly heavy in some rural areas.

At Harrisburg, however, an early check showed only light voting in most precincts. A heavy, wet mist blanketed the city as the polls opened at 7 a. m. but no rain was expected before nightfall.

Voting in Northampton county was reported normal for a presidential election.

Pennsylvania's coal miners—100,000 bituminous and 78,000 anthracite—took the day off to vote. It was orders from United Mine Worker Chief John L. Lewis.

Approximately 80 per cent of the state's 4,748,473 registered voters are expected to ballot before the polls close.

Predictions of success were made by leaders of both the Republicans and Democrats.

A majority of "at least half a million" for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York was forecast by H. Harvey Taylor, the state Republican chairman, on election eve.

Philip Matthews, the Democratic chairman, said Pennsylvanians "will not only give President Truman a plurality and the 35 electoral votes for this state, but their votes x x x will return a Democratic majority to the state house of representatives."

The labor vote in industrial Philadelphia and Pittsburgh apparently holds the key. Predictions of how labor will go are many and varied.

Both the AFL and CIO organizations in the state are almost solidly in support of President Truman, but John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, has urged the coal diggers to vote against Mr. Truman. There are nearly 200,000 miners in the state.

Two statewide offices are at stake those of auditor general and state treasurer.

Twenty-six seats in the state senate and all 208 seats in the state house are at stake. The Republicans now have a commanding control of the state legislature.

Ramsey S. Black of Harrisburg, now state treasurer, is the Democratic candidate for auditor general. He is opposed by Weldon E. Hayburn of Delaware county, a state senator.

In the battle for the state treasurer's post, State Senator William J. Lane, Democrat, is vying against Charlie R. Barber, Erie Republican.

Of Pennsylvania's 33-man delegation in congress, 28 are Republicans and five Democrats.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, a supporter of Dewey said that on the basis of a national survey, Dewey will carry 32 states to 12 for President Truman. The Inquirer said that Dewey will carry Pennsylvania by a sizeable margin.

Pre-Election Stroll

Dems Have Traditional Head Start For Congress Control

Washington, Nov. 2.—(P)—Democrats came up to the voting showdown on control of congress today with their traditional head start of unopposed candidates in the south.

But Republicans, accustomed to battling this lead every two years, claimed they will retain their present leadership in both house and senate when the 81st congress meets January 3.

At stake today are 432 house and 32 senate seats. Maine elected three GOP house members and a Republican, Rep. Margaret Chase Smith, to the senate last September.

Troops Meet Resistance In French Strike

Paris, Nov. 2.—(P)—French troops clearing strikers from the northern fields met serious resistance today for the first time.

Five men of the government forces and a number of strikers were wounded in an exchange of shots and hand grenades near Lille, about 20 miles southwest of Lille.

Previous violence, in which three miners have been killed and many strikers, troops and police wounded, have centered in the south.

One unconfirmed report said shots were exchanged between the government forces and the strikers.

Police threw gas bombs to chase pickets at the No. 5 mine in the north.

Most Democrats claimed a better than even chance to recapture senate control, and a few even hoped to do the same in the house. But GOP bigwigs say they are certain of increasing their house majority and of retaining at least a bare majority of 49 seats in the senate.

At present Republicans hold a slight margin of 51 to 45. Because senators are elected for six years, only 32—one-third—of the full term are at stake this year.

BOTH PARTIES JOIN IN GETTING OUT VOTE

Waynesburg, Nov. 2.—(P)—Republicans and Democrats joined here today "in getting out the vote."

In a newspaper advertisement sponsored jointly by the two parties, the Greene county chairman said:

"Regardless of your political affiliations or commitments, it is your duty as Americans to exercise your right to vote at Tuesday's election."

WHERE VOTES COME HIGH

Lock Haven, Nov. 2.—(P)—Clinton county taxpayers voted today that average voting costs would show a decrease in nearby Grugan township. In last spring's primary election it cost the county $49 to record the eight votes cast in Grugan township—better than $6 apiece. Since the primary the township's registration has increased from 17 to 20—eight Republicans and 12 Democrats.

Want to get a quick idea of how the presidential election may be going?

Then keep an eye out for early returns from West Virginia and Maryland.

West Virginia has backed presidential winners in 14 of the last 16 elections; Maryland in 13 of the last 16.

Outside those "border" states there is New York which rode a loser only once (1916) in the last 16 elections.

Three other states—Arizona, New Mexico and Idaho—also are good weather vane, but their returns will lag because of their time zone location.

For the senate race keep a score-sheet on 11 states. Remember, the Republicans now have a 51 to 45 edge. The Democrats need three more seats to tie it up, four seats to win control. The 11 pivotal states and the party seat at stake:

Kentucky (R), Minnesota (R), Montana (D), Oklahoma (R), West Virginia (R), Wyoming (R), New Mexico (D), Tennessee (D), Illinois (R), Colorado (D).

Another test of voting sentiment will show up in the key gubernatorial races. Recommended barometers: Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Washington, Montana and Tennessee.

And if you're interested in the wet vs. dry question, there is a major fight on in Kansas to repeal the state's 68-year-old prohibition statute.

UNION GROUPS HOLD KEY TO STATE RESULT

Coal Miners and Steelworkers in Position to Pick Nation's Next President

INTERESTING SURVEY

Pittsburgh, Nov. 2.—(P)—Western Pennsylvania coal miners and steelworkers, voting today in the first post-Roosevelt general election, may pick the nation's next president.

The steelworkers have been asked by their leader, Philip Murray, to vote for President Truman.

The miners have been urged by their chief, John L. Lewis, to have no truck with Truman.

How closely these two big groups of unionists, and their families, new to the union line may determine whether Dewey or Truman wins Pennsylvania. And the man who gets the 35 electoral votes of this state, which may be the man to sit in the White House next Jan. 21.

President Roosevelt got those 35 votes in 1944 by the narrow margin of 105,431 out of a popular vote of 3,794,787. It is a margin so narrow that the mine vote alone, if swung solidly to Dewey, could give him the state.

A survey of the 1944 results shows that 28 western and central Pennsylvania counties gave Roosevelt a majority of 82,098. They include Potter, Cameron, Clearfield, Blair, Huntingdon and Bedford, and all counties lying west of them.

However, of these 28 counties, only eight gave F. D. R. a plurality of their votes. Giant among these was Allegheny, where the Democratic majority was 89,472, or 7,000 more than the rest of the entire western-central section.

There are other factors involved. Republicans are watching Pittsburgh to see if the Democratic stronghold of Pennsylvania has been, or can be, smashed. Democrats have an eye on Philadelphia. They wonder if the municipal graft scandals there have cracked the Republican hold on the city.

Philadelphia gave Roosevelt a plurality in three elections: Allegheny county in four. But Philadelphia remained GOP in local elections.

In 1946, the off-election year, usually considered a forerunner of the general balloting, Republicans swept Allegheny county in governor and senate races. But in 1947, the Democrats came back to win every city and county office in sight.

Aid of U. S. Health Dep't Sought By Donora Officials

Donora, Nov. 2.—(P)—The borough of Donora today asked the U. S. Public Health Service to survey the air above the town in an effort to solve the mystery malady which took 19 lives.

Town council voted last night to enlist the aid of the national health agency after hearing charges that fumes and smoke from the zinc works of the American Steel and Wire Company were a factor in the deaths.

The charges were made at an old-fashioned town meeting by Frank Burke, safety director for the CIO United Steel Workers and Dr. William Rongaus, member of the board of health.

Before the meeting of about 200 persons, Dr. Joseph Shilen, head of the Industrial Hygiene Bureau of the State Board of Health, said preliminary tests showed "small quantities" of poison gas in the air.

Dr. Shilen said his preliminary tests showed the presence of both sulphur dioxide and sulphur trioxide in samples taken before the mixture of smoke and fog had lifted to any great degree.

Dr. Rongaus said he expected to have his full report ready by tomorrow and would turn it over to Dr. Norris W. Vaux, state secretary of health.

Dr. Shilen said he expected to have his full report ready by tomorrow and would turn it over to Dr. Norris W. Vaux, state secretary of health.

EARLY RESULTS

Hart's Location, N. H., Nov. 2.—(P)—This small White Mountain community—the first in the nation to report returns in today's election—cast 11 ballots for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and 1 for President Truman.

In the 1944 presidential election Gov. Dewey polled 4 votes and Franklin D. Roosevelt 6.

Waynesville, N. C., Nov. 2.—(P)—The Cataloochee precinct, on the fringe of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, today reported seven votes for President Truman and none for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Only seven were registered at Cataloochee.

In 1944 the precinct gave eight votes for President Roosevelt and two votes for Gov. Dewey.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Nov. 2.—(P)—Brown's Farm precinct, with only eight registered voters, today cast four ballots for President Truman and two for States Rights Candidate J. Strom Thurmond.

Puller Warren received eight votes for governor of Florida and Rep. Dwight D. Eisenhower from the 6th congressional district seven votes.

Pointe Aux Barques, Mich., Nov. 2.—(P)—This village, traditionally the first in Michigan to tally its votes, today gave Thomas E. Dewey.

Rain Falling When Truman Party Votes

Deweys Vote In Precinct Near Hotel

Independence, Mo., Nov. 2.—(P)—President Truman voted today in the straight Democratic ticket today in a little midwestern town where he started on the road to the White House.

Smiling at friends and neighbors, the president walked into the Blue township voting precinct in the Memorial Hall gymnasium with Mrs. Truman and his daughter, Margaret, to cast his ballot.

The three drove over at 9:55 a. m. (10:55 EST) because of the steady rain that was falling.

Mr. Truman was in good humor as he marked ballot 101 in a little plywood voting booth next to Mrs. Truman. She had ballot number 102 and Margaret had 103.

Election officials said turnout so early indicated a heavy vote in Independence.

"How does it look to you?" A reporter asked as the president left his voting booth.

"I can't see anything but victory," he replied.

"What do you think?" He said he had voted the party ticket from "top to bottom" as he had asked voters all over the country to do.

This was when he was asked if he had followed his own advice. "I'm the sort that says do as I do and as I say," he replied, grinning.

The photographers called for the president's wife and daughter to pose as they put in their ballots. They campaigned with him throughout the nation in his bid for another term in the presidency.

His press secretary, Charles G. Ross, said Mr. Truman planned to retire early tonight and "learn the outcome" tomorrow morning.

New York, Nov. 2.—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey voted today in a Manhattan school with a crowd of more than 500 persons cheered him outside.

The Republican candidate for president, accompanied by Mrs. Dewey and his secretary, Paul E. Lockwood, cast his ballot at 12:10 p. m.

After Mrs. Dewey had voted, the governor grinned and said to newsmen:

"That's two votes we've got, anyhow."

The Deweys voted at public school No. 19 at 121 East 51st street, just a few blocks from their suite in the Hotel Roosevelt.

The governor smiled and waved his grey fedora to the crowd outside the school as the party left to return to the hotel.

The Deweys left their auto at Madison Ave. and 55th street, however, and walked the 10 blocks back to the hotel down Madison Ave.

A large crowd gathered behind them and to shouts of "good luck" and other greetings the governor smiled and waved and tipped his hat.

The Deweys' sons, Thomas E. Jr. and John, 13, will arrive from Albany later today. The entire family will dine at the home of Roger W. Straus, New York financier, about 6 p. m.

Afterwards they will gather at the hotel to listen to election returns. With the Deweys is, his mother, 70-year-old Mrs. George M. Dewey of Owosso, Mich.

Last night in a nation-wide radio talk the New York governor declared:

"I hope that each of you will vote regardless of how you vote."

Official Action on Puzzling Soot Nuisance Awaits Report

Official action by borough council to end Warren's puzzling soot nuisance is being held up awaiting receipt of a report from a smoke abatement engineer who was in Warren several weeks ago to make scientific tests and to collect soot samples in an effort to track down the source.

Burgess W. F. Cressett reported at a brief session of council in City Hall last night that he had received a bill but no report from the engineer. Solons ordered payment of the bill held up until the soot report is received.

Councilman G. E. Stone also reported that he had received copies of smoke-abatement ordinances now in effect in St. Louis and Pittsburgh which may be used as models for drafting of a similar ordinance for Warren. However, Council President W. E. Rice said the matter will take considerable study by the committee before such an ordinance can be prepared for consideration by the solons.

No new action was taken on clearing up a bottleneck in the channel widening project at Glade Run and the flood control dike on the south side. The committee reported Solicitor S. D. Blackman and Engineer C. W. Barvis will go to Harrisburg to secure approval of the state department of forests and waters for the proposed plans.

Borough solons suspended rules and passed on all three readings an ordinance providing for installation of an eight-inch sanitary sewer in Hill street, northward from McPherson street to the borough line in the Fifth Ward.

E. W. Patchen, chairman of the streets committee, announced the borough's new Elgin street sweep had arrived and was now in used.

Delivery on the borough's new aerial-ladder fire truck will be delayed at least until January because of a shortage of steel. This news didn't make the solons' news too badly, however, because they have been unable to let a new steel mill needed to widen the steel of the Central fire station to accommodate the new truck.

Finance Committee Chairman Leon Laskaris distributed a financial report showing the standing of the expenditures by each department so far this year as compared to the amounts allocated in the borough's budget, but the report was not made public.

President W. E. Rice also announced that an informal meeting limited to council members, will be held some time during the first two weeks of December to complete spade work on the borough's budget for 1949. Rice asked each committee to have the heads of various departments in the building for the meeting so they could be readily consulted on any question that might come up concerning proposed outlays of cash for next year. This meeting will be in addition to the regular December meeting of council Monday, Dec. 6, which will be open to the public as usual.

The police and new construction committees were instructed to look into the matter of paying a new 15-foot wide strip of land at the rear of the borough building which was recently acquired from the Warren school board. It is planned to install special parking meters and lights in the area to provide space for overnight parking of automobiles.

Communists Threatening All of China

Nanking, Nov. 2.—(P)—Chinese Communists called today for quick surrender of Chiang Kai-Shek's beaten armies in Manchuria and openly boasted they would conquer all of China.

Reports from good authority said fighting had ceased within the entire Mukden area. There were no major disorders, this source said, as the triumphant Red forces took over their richest prize of the civil war.

No further information came on casualties or damage from the bombing of Mukden yesterday by government planes an hour after the Communists completed their occupation. Several bombs exploded within two blocks of the U. S. consulate.

The impact of Mukden's fall and the disaster to Chiang's armies jarred China. The military setback added heavily to economic instability.

A shakeup of the cabinet of Premier Wong Wen-Hao appeared certain. Price controls with which the government had sought to bolster the new gold Yuan currency were abolished, and Shanghai prices jumped 300 to 400 per cent.

Mukden's conquerors urged residents, including foreigners, to continue normal activities. The proclamation was signed, "the committee of Northeast People for Negotiation of Temporary Peace." It was interpreted here as governing only the Manchurian area.

O'MALLEY MOVES TO QUASH INDICTMENTS

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(P)—Attorneys for former Chief Magistrate John J. O'Malley have filed a motion to quash nine of the 10 indictments charging him with malfeasance in office and violation of the magistrate's act.

The motion was filed yesterday with Judge W. Russell Carr of the 14th judicial district at Uniontown. Judge Carr, who was named to preside in the O'Malley case, said a hearing will be called on the motion tomorrow.

O'Malley's chief attorney, Lemuel B. Schofield, in filing the motion to inform himself and to prepare an adequate defense.

VOTE OF OVER 50,000,000 IN 41ST ELECTION FOR CHIEF EXECUTIVE IS ANTICIPATED

By The Associated Press

Good voting weather encouraged a possible record turnout of Americans today to ballot for a president and a new congress.

Heavy forenoon voting was reported from many industrial cities. And good weather helps bring out a big farm vote.

In New York City, 15 percent of the 3,323,520 registered voters had recorded their ballots within two hours after the polls opened. Voting was reported brisk in the upstate cities of Buffalo, Rochester and Schenectady.

Every indication in New England pointed to a heavy vote.

President Truman cast his vote in a gymnasium at his home town of Independence, Mo. Mrs. Truman and their daughter Margaret went with him and voted too. Mr. Truman said he voted the straight Democratic ticket.

Even as the balloting was going on there were the usual conflicting claims from the major parties.

For the country as a whole, it was fair with mild temperatures. There was some rain in the central valleys, the northern Rockies and the state of Washington.

A vote going over 50,000,000 in this 41st presidential election would be a record. The biggest vote in the past was 49,820,312 in 1940. It fell nearly 2,000,000 under that four years ago when many Americans were overseas at war.

The usual race among small precincts to be the first to report their vote was won this time by Hart's Location, N. H.

Backers of Democratic President Harry S. Truman and Republican Candidate Thomas E. Dewey both found something to cheer about in the first trickling returns.

Hart's Location went 11 for Dewey and one for Truman. Franklin D. Roosevelt carried the precinct 6-4 over Dewey in 1944.

Cataloochee precinct in North Carolina's Smoky Mountains popped in next—seven for Truman, zero for Dewey. Dewey got two votes there four years ago and Roosevelt got eight.

Brown's Farm precinct in southern Florida reported four for Truman and two for states' rights candidate J. Strom Thurmond.

First of the presidential candidates to get his own ballot into the box was Henry A. Wallace. The early-rising Progressive party candidate put his vote in shortly after 8 a. m. at South Salem, N. Y.

The early rush at Baltimore brought predictions from election officials that the total of ballots there would reach 310,000, about 25,000 more than four years ago. Such cities as Columbus, Akron, Philadelphia, and Newark also reported heavy voting.

Along with a president, the voters are picking a congress. Democrats and Republicans disputed up to the end the complexion of the senate.

It now has 51 Republicans and 45 Democrats. Republicans said they will hold control. Democrats replied they will take over.

Barring upsets, the house would stay Republican.

The two major candidates wound up their campaign drives on much the same long drive they used at the start last September. Both were on national radio hookups last night.

There are nine other presidential candidates. But only two of them made news.

One is Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina; the other Henry A. Wallace.

The Civil Rights revolt Thurmond led with his State. Rights party seems likely to cost Truman Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina—and possibly to help give Dewey one or two states in the once solid Democratic south.

Wallace's Progressive party is accorded a scattering vote that could influence the presidential result in New York state. But even Wallace's friends aren't counting privately on a single electoral college vote for him.

Generally fair weather was in prospect for most of the country. But here and there rain, and even some snow, threatened to join with what politicians describe as voter apathy to cut down the ballot total.

The senate race was the hottest article of the day nationally.

Some other issues—birth control in Massachusetts, a proposal to permit divorces in South Carolina and a wet-dry fight in Kansas—peppered up local campaigns.

But it is in states with critical senate races that the balloting is expected to be heavy.

A couple of other interested persons also planned to cast their votes in one precinct.

They are Gov. Earl Warren of California, the GOP vice presidential nominee, and his opposite number on the Democratic ticket, (Turn to Page Five)

Noon Count In Boro Less Than In 1944

The magnetism of Franklin D. Roosevelt seems to be lacking in this presidential vote, at least insofar as Warren borough is concerned. A check of the nine precincts of the city discloses that the vote as of noon today is considerably lighter than that of four years ago.

The fifth ward, barometer locally, revealed a figure of 455 votes cast today at noon as contrasted with a count of 537 four years ago. The third ward, upon which the late city editor Clare Berger of the Times-Mirror based his political prognostications, showed a count of 181 today as compared with 176 four years ago.

A comparison with the vote which was out on April 27 of this year for primary elections shows many times more voters exercising their rights today than at that time.

The complete tabulation of the borough as of shortly after noon today follows:

Ward	Today	1944
First	200	201
Second	100	126
Third	181	176
Fourth	140	137
Fifth	455	537
Sixth	292	364
Seventh	142	138
Eighth	224	220
Ninth	93	118

Times-Mirror readers are again reminded that the editorial rooms of the paper will be open to furnish returns this evening. The telephone number is 1700.

Radio station WVAE will also be on the air with its FM station to broadcast local returns as fast as they are received and to broadcast national returns from the Associated Press wire.

The first call from an eager citizen to be recorded at the Times-Mirror office, an inquiry as to who was the presidential winner, was received at 12:45 p. m. today. Inasmuch as the polls do not close until eight o'clock this evening, we were at a loss to clarify the issue for the lady.

SHIPS CRASH IN FOG NEAR TOLEDO HARBOR

Toledo, O., Nov. 2.—(P)—The Lucas county coroner's office reported today that one man was dead aboard the Str. J. J. Boland as the result of a collision with another ship last night during a fog off Lake Erie. The man was not identified.

The Str. Boland was limping up to the Toledo harbor with her bow badly damaged. Capt. Frank Monroe of the Boland reported that his ship collided with the Str. Frank Armstrong off Colchester. Local marine authorities had not located the latter ship at 10 a. m.

REDS OUTLAWED

Limbo, Peru, Nov. 2.—(P)—The Peruvian Communist party has been outlawed by the new government of Gen. Manuel Odría. A decree was issued last night banning the party and reiterating a previous ban on the leftist Apra party.

Only Woman Candidate For President Spends But $5.00

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(P)—A woman who bills herself as America's only woman candidate for president spent $5 out of her own pocket last night to come to Philadelphia for a last-hour appeal for votes.

Her "candidate special" was a bus and her hall was Philadelphia streets.

Fifty-five-year-old Agnes Waters carries her own identification—cardboard placards hanging front and back—and they bear the announcement:

"The pistol packin' mama—Agnes Waters, only woman candidate for the president of the United States."

Mrs. Waters, a Washington real estate woman, and life-long Democrat, is no stranger on capital hill. For 15 years she has been lobbying for her program: Peace and a Strong America.

Her appeal last night was for a write-in vote.

Mrs. Waters declared she has had no financial contributions to wage her campaign which has taken her some 2,500 miles by bus as far west as St. Louis.

But her expenditures have been modest. She said she had spent less than $100.

County Treasurer Attends State Association Meeting

County Treasurer Frank B. Miller, who returned Friday from Harrisburg, reports his attendance at a two day meeting of county treasurers of Pennsylvania at which a reorganization of the County Treasurers' Association, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, was effected. Legislation will be sought to make the association recognized in the same way as are the commissioners, sheriffs, recorders, prothonotaries and other state association of county officials.

At a dinner meeting held Thursday evening, Norman H. Flores of Allentown, Lehigh county, whose interest in the matter led to the reorganization meeting, was elected president; J. Clyde Brown of Williamsport, Lycoming county was elected vice president; Mrs. Rae V. Biester of Media, Delaware county, recording secretary; Mrs. Kathryn Campbell, of Mercer county, corresponding secretary; and Earl Beatty, of Brookville, Jefferson county treasurer.

Those present heard Homer Cook, treasurer of Erie county and a member of the state assembly, speak briefly on matters of interest to the organization. Mr. Cook was later appointed chairman of a six-member legislative committee. Friday's meeting was marked by the appointment of committees on rules and by-laws, on 1949 convention which will meet in Sunbury on May 19 and 20, 1949, and on Legislation. Five directors appointed included Irene Porterfield

Leitz of Franklin, Venango county, one of nine ladies who are county treasurers in this state. The youngest treasurer present was a veteran of World War II, Ray Leach of Middleburg, Snyder county, who was elected last year at the age of 21 years. In appearance he was a man of 30 to 35 years. The concluding session early Friday morning, following luncheon, was highlighted by the address of Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, former member and speaker of the state assembly and now congressman from the eighth district of Pennsylvania, comprising the counties of Bucks and Lehigh.

Mr. Flores, the association president, entertained by singing two numbers in his fine tenor voice which was used to good effect in his campaign last year, after which he and Mr. Lichtenwalter gave a rendition of a campaign song which everyone greatly enjoyed.

It was generally agreed by the sixty to seventy treasurers and their deputies who were present that the discussion of problems common to all county treasurers' offices in the state and necessary legislation to be presented soon was very helpful and likely to be of much benefit to their offices and to the citizens of the commonwealth.

Also attending from this area were Charles L. Pickens, Forest county, and R. E. Youngquist, of McKean county.

Hallowe'en Parties Draw Big Crowds at Youngsville

Youngsville, Nov. 1.—On Friday evening, the last of three school Hallowe'en parties was held in the school gym, with approximately 300 in attendance. School buses brought in the pupils from out of the borough districts.

The first event was the parade and a grand march of pupils in costume. With Mrs. Wendell Engstrom and Mrs. Max Davis acting as judges, awards were made as follows:

Best dressed couple, Josephine Leofsky and Joan Welsh; best dressed girl, Elizabeth Day; best dressed boy, Jack Haigist; funniest couple, James Cowan and Carol Fosberg; funniest girl, Ger-ald Hetrick; funniest boy, David Dunkle; most unique couple, Laura Mason and Mae Danielson; most unique boy, Terry Barton; most unique girl, Mary Ann Shurwin.

For the class acts, first place was taken by the juniors with an all-boy bathing beauty contest; second, senior class with a radio show; third, sophomores with a black face chorus and dance; fourth, freshmen with a square dance; fifth, seventh grade with a hat shop and music; sixth, eighth grade in an act, "Casey Plays Ball."

Group prizes awarded on the basis of students represented, tickets sold and all points, went to the following classes: 1st, juniors; 2nd, seventh grade; 3rd, seniors; 4th, eighth grade; 5th, sophomores; 6th, freshmen.

Decorations were carried out in a variety of crepe paper designs to provide an artistic setting. Refreshments were served by the PTA and home economics girls. To conclude the evening, a ranch dance was enjoyed. The entire affair was under the direction of the Student Council, with Robert Albright as supervisor and Jack Abplanalp emceeing the show.

Warren Boys Take Part In College Vote

As a result of an election conducted Friday at Edinboro State Teachers College, with two students from Warren participating, Thomas E. Dewey was named the successful presidential candidate, having received 53 per cent of the votes cast. Mr. Truman received 32 per cent; Mr. Wallace, 6 per cent; and other candidates, 4 per cent.

The mock election was conducted by the Forum Club, whose president, Leroy Peck, of Warren, acted as moderator for a pre-election rally where views and aims of the three major parties were presented by members of the club. Allan Heffler, Erie, and Jack Egloff, Edinboro, gave the ideas of the Democratic party; Alan Babcock, Warren, and John Platt, Erie, those of the Republican party; and Nicholas La Slavie, West View, and Dewey Davis, D. S. Erie, those of the Progressive party. Following the speeches members of the panel answered questions addressed by the student body.

According to the straw vote of students and faculty, the entire Republican slate will assume office next January for both national and state offices.

New covered bridges are still being built in the United States.

Cpl. Robert Beach With Nara CIS Unit

A special Eighth Army dispatch from Kyoto, Japan, brings the news that Cpl. Robert C. Beach, 511 West Fifth avenue, is serving with the Civil Information Section of the Nara Military Government Team, located in Nara, Honshu.

The NMIGT acts in an advisory and supervisory capacity to the Nara Prefectural Government in such matters as public safety, sanitation, public works, personal and public health, and the various other administrative duties.

Cpl. Beach has been with the NMIGT since April, 1948. He joined the army in February, 1941, and had his basic training at Indian-town Gap. During World War II, he joined the 179th Infantry Regiment, and served in the European theatre until September, 1945, when he returned to the States for discharge.

In January, 1947, he reenlisted in the army, and was sent to Japan to serve with the occupation forces. He previously served with the Osaka Military Government Team for 12 months.

Beach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Beach.

It is estimated there are still at least 2,000 covered bridges in the United States.

Child Singer Best Among The Amateurs

Top honors in the finalist competition held at the Library Theatre on Friday evening were chosen from a list of nine talented artists.

First prize title was awarded Miss Rose Anna Oberg, a little six year old lass who held the audience spellbound with her rendition of "I Can't Say No" and "The Lady In The Tutti Frutti Hat". The professional manner in which this small child handles these difficult numbers rivals that of the seasoned actress Miss Betty Hut-ton. The thunderous applause rightly acclaimed her tops in her field.

Wald Ingham, a six-foot-five Jamestown youth, walked away with second place for his nimble fingering piano selections. His "Bumble Boogie" was exceptionally well done and worthy of the second award in the contest.

The ever charming and talented Miss Phoebe Jewell was on hand to take home third place with a controlled acrobatic number executed with unusual ease and assurance. Miss Jewell has grown up with Warren audiences and the applause that welcomed her Friday evening proved that she was as popular an entertainer as ever.

The other contestants during the four-week run of Old Time Amateur Nights are too numerous to mention, but bring to the attention of Warren audiences the fine caliber of home talent.

Cutting the Gordian knot means to solve a problem in a bold decisive manner.

ABC ON THE ELECTORAL VOTE

Keep your eye on the electoral votes when the election returns start rolling in tonight.

There are 531 electoral votes divided up among the states. The candidate who gets a majority of them—266—wins.

Why those 531 electoral votes? Because they equal the total number of people the 48 states have in Congress: 96 Senators and 435 House members.

Each state is entitled to a number of electoral votes equal to the number of people it has in Congress. For example:

There are 47 New York state people in Congress: The two senators and 45 House members.

There the Republicans have a slate of 47 electors. So have the Democrats.

Say Republican Thomas E. Dewey gets 3,000,000 votes in New York, and Democrat Harry S. Truman gets 2,999,999.

Then Dewey, although receiving only one more popular vote than Truman, gets all of New York's 47 electoral votes. Truman gets none.

Does that mean the 2,999,999 popular votes for Truman wouldn't be included in the total national popular vote to elect him? That's right.

But wait. Suppose in Illinois Truman gets 3,000,000 popular votes and Dewey gets only 1,000,000. Then Truman gets Illinois' 28 electoral votes and Dewey's 1,000,000 popular votes don't count.

Yes, but in those two states Truman receives 5,999,999 popular votes to only 4,000,000 for Dewey, but Truman winds up with only 28 electoral votes while Dewey, because of his New York victory, has 47.

That's right. It means a candidate could get more popular votes and yet lose the election because his opponent carried states with the most electoral votes.

That has happened.

In 1860 Democrat Grover Cleveland got a bigger popular vote than Republican Benjamin Harrison. But Harrison carried the states with the bigger electoral vote and won.

This year Truman, or Dewey, could make a sweep of 36 states and yet lose if his opponent carried only these 12 states:

California, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Indiana, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Texas and Wisconsin.

Why? Because those 12 states have 269 electoral votes, or three more than the 266 majority needed to win.

But suppose it happened that no single candidate got a majority of the electoral votes. What then?

The newly elected House of Representatives would choose the president from the three candidates receiving the greatest number of electoral votes.

In that case the total House vote would be 48, with each state—no matter how many members it has in the House—entitled to only one vote.

PROPHETS WITHOUT POLITICS

Just as the politicians' dire warnings and rosy promises were reaching the peak of their campaign crescendo, some economists in the Agriculture Department issued a prediction.

From the way things now look, they said, we should have continued prosperity until 1955. Given a relatively stable peace, they foresee employment and purchasing power staying at or close to the 1948 level.

It will be noted that there is nothing said about whether our government in the next six years is run by Republicans or Democrats or both. There is nothing to indicate a fear that one group would turn the country over to the Wall Street financiers, or that the other would wreck the nation by bureaucratic waste and inefficiency.

That's the difference between economists and campaigning politicians—even when the economists are working under a political administration.

SLOW TORTURE

Jimmy Petrillo of the musicians' union and the record companies have reached an agreement for lifting the 10-month old Petrillo ban on the manufacture of new recordings. We don't know what brought about this unhappy state of affairs but, until convinced otherwise, we shall lay it to a secret and unexpected weapon of the record makers.

Not long after the ban was imposed, old disks of "Baby Face," "Bye, Bye Blackbird" and similar bygone tunes, heavy on the corn and the banjo, began cropping up in the nation's juke boxes.

Mr. Petrillo's musical ear may not be overly sensitive. But it's still our guess that when his hearing was assaulted by these ancient abominations he decided it was time to give up and call it quits.

"Hey! Which Way Did the Parade Go?"

Here And There

Back in November, 1881, they had a heated election in Warren county, which centered around a contest for register and recorder. The result inspired The Ledger to print a story November 11th, of that year, under the heading: "The Allen Ring Busted; George W. Kinneer is elected Register and Recorder; Verily, There is a God In Israel—Joy Cometh In The Morning." The article regarding the election follows: "So far as Warren county is concerned, we have the pleasure of announcing the defeat of the Allen ring. S. H. Evans for register and recorder, was the special pet of the Colonel faction, and he is defeated, by a small majority to be sure, but enough to show the ring that the wishes of the voters must be respected. They are opposed to bossism as a principal. The fight was made on the Office of Register and Recorder and the 'party of great moral ideas' was defeated. We congratulate Tidoute Republicans who made a firm stand against Evans. Without their aid the work of crushing the ring would not have been accomplished. Ezra Hoyt, the Greenback candidate for the same office, came out with a slim vote, considering his great expectations before the election, but he is young, and still we do not ignore his services. He took a number of votes that would have otherwise have gone to Evans."

In that election which will be remembered by but few county residents today, Republicans were elected to all offices at stake excepting that of register and recorder, and that contest resulted as follows: Evans, R. 1,599; Kinneer, D. 1,790; Hoyt, G. B., 789.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

1928

The Warren News Company was the first local business house to complete its Blue and White window, advertising the approaching grid battle between Warren and Jamestown high schools. Health officials announced two cases of smallpox had been discovered at Kiantone. E. C. Warren, proprietor of Hank's Service Station at Stoneham and a well-known shortwave radio enthusiast, tuned in accidentally on a conversation between the United States and Australia that was being carried on as part of the General Electric Company's short wave experiments. Dr. J. A. Niets, of the School of Education of the University of Pittsburgh, told a meeting of Warren county teachers that many of the text books being used in public schools were "unteachable." It was news that "An airplane flying high and in a westerly direction passed over Warren about eleven o'clock this morning." Sixteen degree temperatures, lowest of the season, were reported by Pennsylvania Gas Company officials at Roystone.

1933

A chemistry class for older boys was formed at the YMCA with the following as members: Dick Keller, Douglas Williams, Jack Miller, Alan Blair, Edith Dunn, Virgil Brasington, Gail Hansen, Bill Meade, Bill Brooks, Dave Dear-dorf, Hudson Grotzinger, Ed Korb, Merlyn Kelsey, Gail Niver and Frank Chimenti. A delegation from the Warren County Motor Club, headed by Warren Burgess R. W. Steber, joined officials from the Jamestown Motor Club in official ceremonies marking the opening of a 1.83 mile section of new pavement in the Warren-Jamestown road near Frawsburg. Seabiscuit reigned as undisputed king of the American turf after conquering War Admiral at Pimlico. Radio dial twist-ers interested in political speeches had their choice of a talk by Senator Joseph E. Gurney on "The People versus Moe Annenberg" or a talk by Arthur H. James, entitled "Fight on, Pennsylvania."

THERE ARE three KINDS

ADVERTISING about life insurance is usually addressed to all, because nearly everyone is a prospect for life insurance.

1 This advertisement is different. It is addressed to only a fortunate group. You will see why in a moment.

1 Think of three men: Mr. Averageman, Mr. Handicapped, Mr. Preferred.

1 Life insurance is universally regarded as one of the safest forms of investment ever devised. Of approximately 70,000,000 policyholders in the United States, the overwhelming majority, conceivably all of them, know no worry about the safety of their insurance. They know that the great life insurance companies will fulfill every detail in the contract.

1 Why so sure? The answer is: because people understand that insurance practices are based on actuarial averages equivalent to certainty. Insurance statisticians can and do reckon the expectations of the future. They can approximate the number per each 1000 persons of any age who will die in the years ahead, from natural causes. Their "Mortality Tables" and "Expectation of Life Tables" do more than reveal what has happened; they show what to expect.

1 On such statistics are insurance rates calculated, and insurance benefits made available to Mr. Averageman. But there also are refinements to the calculations made for him.

1 A risk may be below average, and still be insurable. He is Mr. Handicapped. He pays more than Mr. Averageman.

1 And in a comparable category, but at the other end of the scale, there is Mr. Preferred. He pays less than Mr. Averageman.

1 Mr. Preferred is the personification of the fortunate group to whom this advertisement is addressed. For him there is available the most favorable insurance offering of all. This opportunity is open to him because his extra good health and excellent parental history make him, in insurance parlance, a preferred risk.

1 Anyone believing he meets the specifications of Mr. Preferred will be well advised to inquire if he can qualify for the John Hancock Preferred Risk Whole Life Insurance policy. Check yourself by the following general requirements:

1. Good physical condition.
2. Normal build, average weight and height.
3. Good personal health history.
4. Family history indicating more than average longevity.
5. Non-hazardous occupation.
6. Financial stability, good character, favorable home environment.

The saving to Mr. Preferred is considerable. If you think you can qualify . . . send the coupon.

Consolidated Turkey Farm On NBC Network Thursday

16 States Balloting On Numerous Issues

Two prominent Warren men will be heard over radio station WKAR on Thursday morning at 10:45 o'clock as the result of a recorded interview held here some weeks ago when Ned Maxwell, popular farm interviewer, talked with Lewis, or the Lewis Catering Service, and his partner, Ben J. Mathis, concerning their turkey raising business which is operated as Consolidated Turkey Farms. The program is heard regularly over 30 stations in connection with Allied Mills, Inc., and is called "Let's Go Visiting." It features interesting persons and places in rural America and includes organ music by Jeanne Brown.

The interview will tell of the start of the local men's turkey business which has grown to national proportions, and will outline some of their business history. They have as much fun doing business as any two could possibly have.

Ben Mathis, in addition to the turkey farm, has a real manufacturing company. He is vice president and general manager of the Warren Tank Car Company. He first entered the turkey business to prove to Deb that he could raise them as well as Deb does. Deb Lewis is the third generation of his family to operate "the Lewis Market founded in 1863. In addition to the market, Deb has established a Lewis Catering Service, well known to Warren folks, and whose motto is "No Too Big, No Too Far." Feeding thousands of people at one sitting is a common occurrence to Deb, who nonchalantly loads hams, cheese, salad, beans, potatoes and all things to comprise a meal on his fleet of trucks and transports them many miles for crowds of up to 10,000 persons. If wanted, he will also provide a quartet, a band or other entertainment along with the food.

The two men have made a specialty of Christmas turkeys, sending them in a special Christmas wrapping to all parts of the country. Neither has any thought of retiring. Business is too flourishing and too much fun, they say.

For any listeners unfamiliar with the station, WKAR is received at 1020 kilocycles on your radio dial.

Dewey Vote In Precinct Near Hotel

(From Page One)

Trim in a brown suit, black topcoat and gray homburg, Dewey motored from his hotel to a Radio City studio for his broadcast.

With Mrs. Dewey at his side, he told his audience:

"The foremost issue rising clear and high above all others is whether in this solemn hour the United States of America is going to be a strong, united nation—a nation that can meet the challenge of a dangerous world."

There he sounded the keynote of his 16,000-mile campaign. Over and over again since Sept. 19 he has said his first purpose is to unify America. Under President Truman, Dewey has told the nation, America is not united.

In addition to the foreign policy aspect of his address, Dewey touched on one other campaign pledge. He reiterated his intention to broaden the social security program and increase the present benefits.

Troops Meet Resistance In French Strike

(From Page One)

Lievin group, about 20 miles southwest of Lille.

It was here, according to the semi-official French Press Agency, that shots were heard.

At Oignies, strikers tried to recapture one pit from government forces, but were driven off.

The government charged that saboteurs derailed two miners' trains as three columns of troops drove into the last pits held by the Communist-led coal strikers in the Lens area.

Government sources predict that a back-to-work movement among the miners in defiance of Communist strike leaders will cause the collapse of the nation-wide coal walkout this week.

One train left the tracks near Valenciennes at the extreme eastern end of the northern coal basin. In this area near the Belgian border, workers in two small mines have continued to dig coal all through the 29-day walkout.

Spikes had been pulled from the rails along 25 feet of track.

EARLY RESULTS

ey a clean sweep of the presidential balloting with 15 votes to none for President Truman. Kim Sigler, Republican candidate for governor, got 14 votes to one for his Democratic opponent, G. Menen Williams.

STATE DRAFT QUOTA FOR JANUARY 1, 1947

Harrisburg, Nov. 2.—(P)—Pennsylvania's draft quota for January is 1,317 men.

State Selective Service headquarters announced the allotment yesterday after the national quota was fixed at 20,000.

November and December quotas for men in the eligible 19 through 25-year-old age group are 630 and 988, respectively.

Henry M. Gross, state director, said he anticipated about 1,500 men would have to be called up to meet the January quota and provide for rejections.

CHAIRMAN SCOTT IS ONE OF EARLY VOTERS

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—(P)—U. S. Rep. Hugh D. Scott (R.-Pa.), chairman of the Republican national committee, voted early today and said "present indications are for a tremendous sweep for Dewey and Warren in every section of the country."

"The greatest thing about this election," Scott said, "is that tomorrow we can all close ranks without hatred or bitterness and set about the common job of keeping this country prosperous and at peace."

School Board Occupied By Usual Reports

Reports of a varied nature occupied the majority of the time at the November meeting of the board of education, held last night at the high school building.

Dr. Carl E. Whipple, assistant superintendent of schools, reported on the driver education program; outlined the proposed adoption of new textbooks; revisions in report card system; presented the schedule for the motion picture program, and reported on the series of vocational education talks which he has been delivering before PTA's and other community groups.

Permission was granted the football squad to attend the Penn State-Fitt game on the 20th, providing the usual consent and travel regulations are met.

The school census for persons in the community between the ages of six and 17 years was reported by the attendance department, the total of 2,314 being four higher than one year ago.

The cafeteria report showed sale of 11,008 lunches at Beatty and the high school, with an additional sale of 17,294 half-pints of milk; also that state reimbursement for September amounted to $882.60.

A check was acknowledged from the Sch. Music Boosters Club, Inc., in the sum of $148.28, contribution of that body toward expense of the summer band and orchestra school.

Dr. Whipple, Miss Cecilia Burch and Miss Dorothy Lincoln were granted permission to attend a meeting of executives of the Pennsylvania State Education Association to be held in Harrisburg December 10, and F. H. Metrick, of the Beatty faculty, was given permission to go to a nationwide meeting of social studies teachers to be held in Chicago during the Thanksgiving vacation period.

The Community PTA Council was given permission to use a room at the high school building once each month for the purpose of planning its community youth parties, and the county commissioners were allowed use of the Lacy building for today's elections.

Another report showed 24 chairs have been ordered for the Senate building and two rooms at the high school and Beatty building are to be supplied with dark curtains so that the motion picture program may be extended.

Bills from the activities accounts were approved in the sum of $2,826.05, and from the regular accounts in the amount of $12,159.51.

Vote of Over 50,000,000 In 41st Election For Chief Executive Is Anticipated

(From Page One)

Senator Alben W. Barkley, of Kentucky.

In 32 states, governors are being elected. Republicans, confident of a Dewey victory, forecast that when the counting is over they will have a majority instead of the 24 to 24 tie that now prevails.

Gov. James E. Folsom of Alabama led a last-hour attempt to get Truman's name on the state's ballot, the only one that ignores him. Dewey is listed on all 48.

Politicians called Virginia a possible Dewey state.

Tennessee's situation was such that even if Truman carries it he will get only 10 of the state's 12 electoral votes.

These bassinets will be presented to the maternity ward of the Warren General Hospital. Five of them have already been donated and five more are needed to reach the goal of ten. FALL IN CROP PRICES

Harrisburg, Nov. 2.—(P)—A fall in crop prices more than offset a gain in livestock prices for the month ended Oct. 15, says a State Agriculture Department. Former Oil City Man Is Victim In Crash

Temple, Okla., Nov. 2.—(P)—The Oklahoma Air National Guard tried to learn today whether parachute failure or personal injury let two flyers hurtle to death from a flaming B-26 bomber.

First Lt. James H. Salmon, 26, the pilot, and First Lt. Philip J. Clinton, his observer, were killed yesterday.

The two reserve officers were on a search flight for an amusing private plane that had been located—just minutes before their own accident.

Salmon was a student at the University of Oklahoma at Norman and Clinton an Oklahoma City resident.

They were flying in a formation of three planes near the Texas border when they radioed there were fumes in the cabin—presumably from the bomb bay gas tank. Three minutes later Capt. W. W. Denham in another plane saw flames burst from the stricken bomber.

Those killed in the missing private plane were Robert C. Rapp, wealthy oil man; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Tunkis, and the pilot, B. E. Barr. The wreck was found near Matador, Texas. All four were from Oklahoma City.

Rapp, about 55, was president of the Denver Producing and Refining Co., a native of Safford, Pa., he lived in Oil City, Pa., until about 10 years ago.

Rain Falling When Truman Party Votes

(From Page One)

"I think I'll go to bed," the president went on. "You won't know anything until tomorrow."

Mr. Truman returned to his home and a short while later drove to the family farm at Grandview to visit with his brother, J. Vivian Truman and his sister, Miss Mary Jane Truman.

The president voted several hours later than usual. This was in deference to his daughter, who makes no bones about her objection to her dad's early rising habits.

Behind him were 371 speeches, made before almost every conceivable type of audience in 31,500 miles of travel. It was one of the most strenuous campaigns ever undertaken by an occupant of the White House in a bid for a new term.

And, to use the words of his daughter, Margaret, "now it is all over."

Margaret's comment came last night as her dad concluded a vote appeal by radio from the living room of the 56-year-old home on North Delaware street that has served as the "Little White House" for nearly four years.

National Art Week

"Art in school is but a waste of time", is a remark often made by people who do not realize that art affects two-thirds of all industries in the United States. Can you visualize daily living without color or design? Just what would it be like with gray, unpainted homes; drab, uninteresting clothes; rusty brown cars; homes and shops not designed by architects? Wed art with practicability and have a happy union that adds beauty and efficiency to daily living.

In our elementary schools, art appreciation skills in use of color, shape and design are fundamental. Creative skill and imagination come into play in crafts and planning such things as Indian villages, health fairs, Warren airport, Eskimo dwellings, and homes of Pilgrims.

In Junior and Senior High Schools, more emphasis is placed on the development of individual ability, appreciation of beauty in environment and the place of art in the social, academic and industrial world. It is here that the student gets a working knowledge of the use of pencils, speed ball pen, India ink, poster paints, pastels and equipment used in crafts.

Techniques are stressed in Junior High School, thus enabling Senior High School students to elect their courses from cartooning, fashion designing, crafts, commercial work, advanced pencil drawing, pen and ink sketching, pastel work, water coloring, oil painting, mechanical drawing, and architecture, where the student designs, plans and builds home, garage, or cabin according to scale.

In the department of special education, arts and crafts are closely correlated with academic work. By means of actual construction, such as wood work, weaving, metal work, and leather craft, the children of this department are learning to live and work together.

Needlework Guild Directors Prepare For Annual Display On November 16

Directors of the Warren Branch Needlework Guild of America, held their fall planning meeting and tray luncheon at the YWCA activities building at noon Monday.

Besides 22 directors in attendance, there were representatives of the various agencies which benefit by the Guild's annual collection. Lenore Thurston spoke for the state nurses' Helen Downey for the Warren Visiting Nursing Association, Claire Elliott for the Children's Aid Society, and Mrs. J. W. A. Luce for the Warren Relief Association.

Their reported needs showed that emphasis this year is to be placed on wearing apparel for school-age children. There is always need for infants' wear, also, but this comes in more readily than do the garments for older children.

It was announced the annual ingathering display will be held in the Woman's Club on Tuesday, and other articles will be arranged in the club auditorium.

A business session will be held at that time, when Mrs. Brackett Ayers will present the nominating committee's selections for officers to serve in the coming two years.

All who come to the display from three o'clock on will be served a cup of tea by Mrs. William L. Ball and Mrs. Wayne Helmbrecht, with their hostesses.

Directors of the Warren branch are asked to make a special effort this year to secure new members, since it is in this manner that the organization maintains and increases its memberships and, consequently, the garments and other articles it collects as "the charity which aids all charities."

Top Colleges In Battle For Leadership

New York, Nov. 2.—The old Notre Dame-Michigan argument is again being played out in the college football world.

Displacing the Wolverines by a total of 1,762 points to 1,759, Notre Dame actually ran behind Michigan in the matter of first place votes, 15-56.

North Carolina running a strong third, is a definite threat to both leaders with 36 first place votes and 1,435 points.

The first 20 teams of last week are back again with one exception and that club, Baylor, was not beaten there certainly will be some casualties Saturday.

Notre Dame plays Indiana, which has lost its last four games, and Michigan gets a whack at Navy, which has not won yet. It was the Middles, beaten 41-7 by a Notre Dame team that was trying hard to hold down the score, who helped the Irish into first place.

Army is the No. 4 team in the poll with 1,249 points after its 49-7 romp over Virginia Tech.

California, the lone Pacific coast team among the nine who still are unbeaten an untied, is fifth with 1,132.

Georgia Tech again is ranked sixth with 1,109.

BIDS FOR TROTTERS STICKS TO HIGH

Lexington, Ky.—(NBA)—S. A. Camp is a man not easily discouraged. A year ago Camp paid a record $42,000 for White Hanover, a yearling colt which turned up lame this season and failed to get to the races. At the Lexington Tattersalls Sales this year, however, Camp was back again. When the yearling pacer Dazzleway, by Billy Direct, out of Erie, went for the block from the Gameway consignment, the Shafter,

Warren High School Dragons, who will wind up their 1948 football campaign with a battle next Saturday afternoon at Kane, will take in the Pitt-Penn State match at Pittsburgh Saturday, November 20.

The Warren school board last night granted the team permission to make the trip, providing the players obtain their parents' consent, and the trip is made in insured carriers.

Bradford high school's 18-0 triumph over Jamestown, N. Y., over the week end wrote fins to an undefeated season for the Owls, and ranked them as one of the top teams in northwestern Pennsylvania. The eight wins this year, coupled with two at the end of last season stretches the Owls victory string to 10.

Bob Plug's squad this year rolled up 244 points to 45 for the opposition, downing in order: Franklin, 34-12; DuBois, 39-0; Erie East, 35-7; Erie Tech, 20-13; Oil City, 40-6; Warren, 12-0; Meadville, 46-7, and Jamestown, 18-0.

Pflug, a Grove City College graduate, has been a Bradford 17 years. His teams have won 114, lost 25 and tied five games.

McKean county has one other undefeated team: Smethport high, which kept its slate clean over the week end by smothering Post Allegany, 25-0. It was the sixth triumph for Smethport this season.

New Kensington and Ambridge high schools have severed football relations, following charges of brutal play in a game Friday night.

The break was announced by Carl C. Glock, New Kensington athletic director, who leveled the charges of brutal playing. He said the New Kensington players were hospitalized after the game, won by New Kensington 25-19.

The win ran New Kensington's undefeated streak to 24 games over the last three seasons. New Kensington is the defending Class A champion of the western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Glock said New Kensington fans "are up in arms about the treatment our boys received at Ambridge." His statement brought a blast from Ambridge Coach Maurice Rubenstein, who declared:

"What's the matter? Are they afraid they'll lose a game. It's up to them whether Ambridge plays New Kensington in the future. They have a lot of room to complain." New Kensington is the roughest team in Pennsylvania.

Calif., harness horse owner went to $25,000 for him. Two nights later he went for $25,000 to land Mighty Sun, a Volomite colt.

Basketball Coach To Speak At Sports Booster Meeting

A large turn-out of Warren Sports Boosters and their friends is anticipated for the Fall meeting of the organization tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Warren YMCA.

Present to tell something of Warren's new sports enterprise will be Joe Hardy, coach of the Warren Bulldogs, professional basketball team which has been entered in the All-American Basketball League. Hardy has been associated with cage teams for many years, and he will tell the fans some of his plans whereby he hopes to put Warren on the basketball map this coming season.

Two outstanding reels of 16mm sound films also will be shown through the courtesy of the Atlantic Refining Company's film service. One film will be a 20-minute picture, "Football Highlights", while the second is an 11-minute reel, entitled "Bowling Aces".

Cards have been mailed to all members on the active rolls of the Sports Boosters and each member has been urged to "bring a friend".

A brief business meeting will open the evening's activities and it is expected that a definite date will be picked for the annual banquet which the Sports Boosters hold in the winter at which time they honor the letterman and seniors on the Warren High School Football and Basketball teams. Other committee reports will be made and such other business as may be necessary transacted.

OBITUARIES

ELLIS WILLIAMS

Garland, Nov. 2-Willis Williams, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, this place, who lost his life in Germany, arrived in Youngsville on Tuesday and a military funeral service was held in his honor Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Chitester officiating.

Ellis, the only boy from Garland to give his life overseas, was born in May, 1921, in Garland. He attended the Garland and Youngsville High School and entered the army January 7, 1943. He was eventually placed with the medical unit and in July, 1944, sailed for England. While overseas, he served with hospital units in England, Scotland, France and Germany. On July 4, 1945, he met his death by accidental drowning. He, with five other boys from his organization, was riding in a jeep which plunged into the Yagat river in Germany. The bridge had evidently been weakened by bombs and seems to have been unbarred. He was one of the three who were drowned.

A memorial service was held the next day for the three boys and he was interred in a military cemetery in Germany.

The parents received many letters testifying to the high esteem in which their son was held, and his splendid service, by the many buddies he called his friends.

Many from here attended the funeral Wednesday and the interment in the family plot at Newton.

MRS. CLARA PALMER

Garland, Nov. 2-Clara Palmer, mother of Fred Palmer, of Garland, was laid to rest on Saturday in Garland's Methodist cemetery, following funeral services held in that church, with her pastor, Rev. E. W. Chitester, officiating.

The deceased was well known in this vicinity, having resided here for many years. She came to this country from Germany as a young girl, and made her home with her parents at Torpedo. This dainty little lady, who lived to be 73 years old, possessed many graces of heart and manner that endeared her to her friends. She also impressed her friends by her youthful appearance, and the interest she always manifested in the young people. For several years now, she has made her home with her children.

Besides the son in Garland, she is survived by another son George, of Jamestown, and two daughters, Helen Anderson and Clara Grosch.

B. J. SEXTON

Bartholomew John Sexton, 332 Water street, who was taken ill while hunting in the nearby woods on Monday, died at the family home about 1:30 p. m., soon after having been removed to his home.

He was born in Ireland on May 26, 1876, but had been a resident of this community for the past 36 years, coming here from Titusville. A boilermaker by trade, he was employed by the Hammond Iron Works for a period of about 30 years until he was taken ill four years ago.

Besides his wife, Elizabeth Fitzgerald Sexton, he leaves four sons, Joseph Michael, of Smethport; Patrick John, of Bangor, Me.; James William, of Titusville.

Removal has been made to the Templeton Funeral Home, where friends will be received at the usual hours after 10 a. m. Wednesday and from where a prayer service will be held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. Harold Knappenberg will officiate.

Youngsville Girl Scouts Celebrating

Youngsville, Nov. 2—Youngsville Girl Scouts are joining with others all over the country in the celebration of Girl Scout Week. Both the Methodist and the Evangelical United Brethren churches on Sunday will observe the occasion. The girls presented a short story of the founding of the Girl Scouts of America by Juliette Low in 1912. They also gave the impressive Girl Scout Promise.

Speaking in the Evangelical church were Jean Samuelson and Carol Fosberg; in the Methodist church, Ardelle Johnson, Laura Vertz, Joan Armstrong, Shirley Jager and Erla Jean Sloan. All are members of Troop 38, of which Betty Husted is leader.

On display in the Methodist church were the seven service tags of Girl Scout Week made by members of Troop 38, under the supervision of their leader, Miss John Kirk. Days of the week are: Monday, Homemaking; Tuesday, Citizenship; Wednesday, Health and Safety; Thursday, International Friendship; Friday, Arts and Crafts. Saturday Out of Doors.

To further mark the observance, the Brownies have placed an exhibit in the E. J. Abraham core window, and Girl Scouts have arranged an exhibit in the library window.

A pre-Girl Scout Week party was enjoyed Saturday evening in the Legion Hall by Troop 38.

Family Night
Members and friends of Saron church enjoyed a family night Wednesday to aureen "Family Night" dinner at 6:30 p. m. in the church dining room. A feature of the evening's program will be a moving picture entitled, "Now I See." The story of the picture emphasizes Stewardship.

New Library Books
New books in the library include a copy of Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, desk size and including a rhyming dictionary. A literary Guild book purchased is, "I Captured the Castle" by Dottie Smith. It is the story of the purchase of an English castle, built long ago and lacking much now, found in today's homes.

WSSC Dinner
Plans are going forward for the cooperative WSSC dinner to be held in the Methodist church dining room. All women of the church and of the circles of the WSSC are invited and are asked to bring table service as well as something for the dinner. Miss Minnie Armstrong, of Kane, Conference WSSC president, is the speaker. Bring also a donation for the Ruth Smith home. Lasts are being given out of articles needed. Money gifts are also acceptable.

Rev. Gustav D. Bloom, a pastor from Sweden, will speak on Thursday evening at the Freehold Lutheran church. Rev. Mr. Bloom will speak in English and his talk will be about his homeland. Any one who desires to attend this service will be very welcome. Rev. Mr. Bloom has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Youngsville.

MY WIFE HAVING LEFT ME
Sue, I sure do miss you. And I admit I've been hard to take. But, hon, there was a reason for my mean disposition. I was "out of order" and depending upon harsh laxatives. Now you'd see a big change. Yes, I've found relief from constipation caused by lack of bulk in the diet—by eating right. Every day now, I have me a couple of KELLLOGG'S ALL-BRAN and follow through by drinking plenty of water. What relief, what joy, to be able to give purgatives the go-by! That crisp whole bran taste just fine and keeps me regulated. But, Sue, he isn't right without you. Come back, you're the only girl for me. Your loving JOE.

Metzger-Wright's Will

Discontinue the Issue of

DISCOUNT STAMPS

Changing competitive conditions in the post-war world of retailing demand a new approach at Metzger-Wright's. The cost of operating a five-floor department store in a community of fifteen thousand people has doubled in recent years and continues to increase. Discount Stamps have been a heavy expense, amounting to a deduction of approximately two cents from every sales dollar before any other business costs are met.

More employees are necessary than in past years. About eighty are now employed in the various selling, operating, and service departments. A smaller margin of profit per item is developing as the market becomes more competitive. Finally, in our plans for the future we envisage a sales promotion program in which better values and lower prices will be a daily, weekly, monthly, yearly fact at Metzger-Wright's.

We know that many of our customers will regret the discontinuance of the long-established Discount Stamps. We regret it ourselves. But, under today's conditions, there is no alternative. We are giving two months' notice, so that no hardship will be caused to anyone who now has a partly-filled Stamp Book. The pre-Christmas and Christmas seasons are just ahead. There are wonderful offers for you at Metzger-Wright's between now and January 1.

You will want not only to fill the book you have but several other books. Remember, Discount Stamps WILL be given every day during November and December on exactly the same terms as in the past. You may redeem your book or books any time after January 1, 1949, at its full stated value, either in cash, credit, or merchandise.
